I am manifesting the person I want to spend my life with.

I have a crystal-clear image in my mind of the person I want to spend the rest of my life with. When I imagine this person, I feel happy, safe, and excited. I am manifesting this person. The universe is on my side.

I have a specific list of attributes of the partner that I am attracting into my life. They already feel familiar to me. It is as if I have known this person for my entire life.

I am doing my part to speed up this process. I am developing myself into a person that I admire. I am exploring my interests and engaging in my hobbies. I am maximizing my health. I am practicing financial responsibility.

I know that this person is coming to me as quickly as possible. I am patient. I have been waiting for this person for a while, but I am able to wait longer. I know that good things can take time to happen.

Until my person arrives, I am continuing to live my life to the fullest. I am preparing myself for their arrival.

Today, I am manifesting the person I want to spend my life with. I believe that today might be the day that I finally meet this person in the flesh. I expect wonderful things to happen today.
